

What opportunities will this program offer you?

- Career choices
- Internships
- Employment

- Friends
- Volunteer experiences
- Community Based Instruction
- Support Network

- Independence
- Community service
- Leadership
- Social Skills Training

Interested?

Check out admission requirements:

- Have a developmental or emotional disability.
- Be 18 to 21 years of age.
- Have completed high school course work.
- Have a desire to receive high school transition services in a community setting.
- Have own transportation provided.
- Be eligible for or receiving SSI/SSDI.

McKay Scholarship Funding is available for those who qualify. If you've received a special diploma, you still may be eligible.

For more information about McKay Scholarship funding visit: www.floridaschoolchoice.org

We offer unique transition programs for young adults with developmental or emotional disabilities based on individual needs.

What are you waiting for?

Call 904.358.1200 today.

The Arc Jacksonville Academy

Transition Program

Arc of Jacksonville's Commitment

We, at the Arc Jacksonville, are committed to providing people with varied opportunities to make important life decisions, offering services tailored to individual needs and goals.

Arc Jacksonville Program Mission Statement

To provide advocacy and quality services that enable people with developmental disabilities to achieve their full potential, enhance their quality of life, and be active participants in their communities

Arc Jacksonville's Program Goal

To create independent lifelong learners who achieve their highest level of development and who are connected to their community.

Contact Information

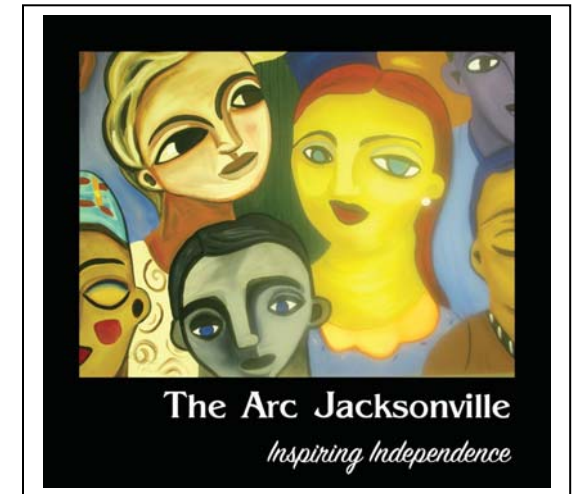

The Arc Jacksonville Academy
1050 N Davis Street
Jacksonville, Florida 32209

904.358.1200
904.358.3800 fax

The Arc Jacksonville Academy

A unique educational experience for high school students with developmental or emotional disabilities

Three locations
to serve you:
Downtown, Arlington
and Westside